

During this time away from Cubs, why not create some entertainment for you and your family. You can do some of these activities on your own or with members of your family.

*** Remember to take photos or videos of what you do so you can be awarded with the badge ***

Choose at least two of the activities to get this badge:

1) Make a mime or play and then perform it

Mime	Play
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- To mime you have to be silent!</li> <li>- You could dress up like a traditional mime artist when you perform</li> <li>- Things to try before you make up your own mime sketch:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- walking downstairs behind your sofa (where there are no stairs)</li> <li>- being trapped in a box</li> <li>- pulling a rope (someone could join you with this and pretend to be pulled closer to you)</li> <li>- cleaning a window</li> <li>- opening a door and walking through it</li> <li>- laughing and crying</li> <li>- playing a sport</li> </ul> </li> <li>- Once you have practised make up your own mime sketch and perform for your family</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- You will need to ask your family to join you to perform a play</li> <li>- You should have a script so that performers know what to do and say</li> <li>- Practise your play and perform it for other member of your family (if you have included everyone in your house you could video call other family or friends)</li> </ul>

2) Perform a puppet or shadow puppet show using puppets you have made

- You could make puppets out of old socks by drawing a face on them and adding hair and accessories to them ***Ask an adult before you use any socks***
- You could make a puppet on a stick with old clothes, material, newspaper or empty bottles and decorate them ***Ask an adult before you use any old clothes***
- Make up a sketch and perform it for your family

3) Plan and perform some recorded entertainment

- You could record a radio show or podcast, maybe about one of your hobbies, something you are interested in or your pet
- You could record an item for a TV chat show, like a part of Blue Peter or the One Show
- You could create an instructional video on a sport you play or how to do a craft
- You could make up a story and create an audio book

4) Sing two songs

- Learn two songs and perform them for your family
- You could learn this campfire song https://youtu.be/\_kqd0SbT1mM and teach your family.

5) Make some simple rhythm instruments, then perform using them

- Use a variety of recycling to make instruments
  - You could try to make drums with different sized tubs - does adding water or other items inside change the sound? You could use different items to hit them to get different sounds
  - You could make shakers using empty bottles and pebbles or soil
  - You could make a simple string instrument using different sized rubber bands around a tub or string tied tightly around the tub

6) Read a book (chapter) or poem out loud to an audience

- Use different voices for different characters

7) Make up a dance to a song you like and perform it

- Try different styles of dance, watch videos of different styles so you can make up your own dance ***Ask and adult before you use the internet***
- Think about the rhythm of the music to dance to

8) Learn and perform magic tricks

- You can learn some tricks here <https://www.care.com/c/stories/4051/easy-magic-tricks-for-kids/>
- Wow your family with your newly learnt tricks!

Remember to get photos, videos or voice recordings of your performances so you can claim your badge
